Farmers and Hunters Feeding the Hungry

"For I was hungry, and you gave me meat."

Our Maryland-based ministry fights food insecurity across the nation by getting farmers and hunters to donate deer and livestock. We pay local butchers to process the meat, and give it to food banks, homeless shelters and soup kitchens for distribution. One deer can provide meat for 160 meals. We have provided over 23 million meal servings since 1997, helping combat hunger locally and sustainably.
